CHARGED TO HIS ENEMIES

Unidentified Parties Nearly Wreck Club Building Where Tammany Man Presides.

NEW YORK, April 21.—A bomb throwing which nearly wrecked the four-story brownstone building of the Pocasset Club, a Tammany organization, early today, is charged by the police against unknown political enemies of Nicholas J.
Hayes, for twenty years the Tammany leader of the twenty-eighth assembly district. Hayes, a former sheriff, is president of the Pocasset Club, which is located on 116th street, in the heart of "Little Italy," of the upper east side.

Windows All Broken.

The bomb, heavily charged with dynamite and tightly wound with wire, was thrown into a basement hallway where it exploded with such force that every window in that and some adjoining buildings was broken, part of one floor turned up and the plaster of all four cellings of the clubhouse shaken down. The only persons in the place at the time were four men playing cards and a steward none of whom was more than slightly injured. The thick, settled neighborhood, however, was roused almost to a state of panic. The perpetrator of the outrage escaped without leaving any clues behind.

BURGLAR KILLS A WOMAN; ESCAPES THROUGH WINDOW

Hour Later Two Neighbors Shot and Wounded at South Attleboro. Mass.—Suspect Is Held.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., April 21.—Mrs.
James Colbert of South Attleboro was killed by a burglar early yesterday, and an hour later Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Powers, neighbors, were shot and severely wounded. The same robber is believed to have figured in both affairs. Last night a poorly dressed man, who was unable to give a satisfactory account of himself, was taken into custody as a suspicious person.
Mrs. Colbert, according to the police, was awakened by a strange man in her room, and screamed to her husband, who was in another part of the house. Without a word of warning, the intruder shot the woman in the breast, and disappeared through a window. Mrs. Colbert was barely able to gasp out her story to her husband before she died.
Colbert notified the police, who had just begin an investigation when word came of the shooting at the Powers residence.
Mr. and Mrs. Powers said they had been aroused by some one in their room, and, when they called out, both were shot. They are expected to recover.

St. Louis Summer Garden Burns.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 21.—West End Heights, one of St. Louis' best known summer gardens, was destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss estimated at $200,000. One man, Dan Slattery, the watchman, who was ill of pneumonia in his bed in the hotel, is missing and it is feared he perished.
Picked Up on Street; Dies.
Picked up unconscious at 7th and 11 streets northwest shortly after midnight last night, an unidentified colored man was removed to Emergency Hospital, where he died. The man is about forty years old, has a full growth of beard and wore an old reddish coat and pants, old broken shoes and a black derby hat.
